

Financial support for online environment for Gunma University students

Application Requirements

【Purpose】

With the spread of new coronavirus infection, new environment for taking online classes

We will provide financial support to the prepared students.

* While the period of online lessons is uncertain, the target of assistance is continuous communication fees.

It is temporary, not costly.

[Support target]

With the spread of new coronavirus infection, new environment for taking online classes

Students who are undergraduate, graduate school, special support education special major

However, the following students are not eligible for support.

- Special auditors, students of courses, research students, auditors and special research students

- State-funded international students

- International students

- JSPS Research Fellow

* Assistance provided that the main purpose of newly improving the environment is not to attend online classes

It may not be the target.

[Subsidy amount]

In principle, 15,000 yen will be paid per person as a subsidy for the costs required for environmental improvement.

[How to apply]

Students who wish to help with the expenses required for environment maintenance should log in to the Gunma University Academic Affairs System,

Click "Questionnaire" from the menu at the top to display the "Gunma University Student Online

Select "Financial support application for improving class attendance environment" and apply in the form to answer the questionnaire

Please give me. In addition, in order to confirm the necessity of assistance, you may be required to submit separate materials.

Also, the benefits will be transferred to the account registered for tuition deduction, but the name of the transfer account is

Limited to the student. If the account is not in the name of the person (including unregistered), a new transfer

You need to register your account with the university. [Fax the "passbook copy submission form" with the above application]

* The personal information obtained from the application will be properly managed and will not be used for any purpose other than providing support.

[Application deadline]

Friday, May 29, 2020, 17:00

(1) Completion of input and transmission by the Academic Affairs System (all applicants)

(2) Fax transmission of a copy of the passbook (only if applicable)

[Determination of benefits]

The president decides the benefit based on the application details.

[Planned payment date]

Mid-June 2020 [plan]

[Evidence documents]

Students who have been subsidized for the expenses required for environmental maintenance are documents that prove (do) new maintenance.